

Proverbs Daily Dose of Wisdom Devotional

Chapter 1 By Pastor Kevin Lewis

July 1, 2015

I really like Proverbs because it was written to instruct us on how to live to please God, how to have a happy and successful life, and how to avoid the tragedies and destructions resulting from sin. Chapter one opens teaching on wisdom. Wisdom means living and thinking according to God’s Truth, ways, and design. Folks, we can approach all of life from God’s point of view which is to believe that everything God says is right and true, and the only worthy standard by which to live.

I have come to realize that gaining wisdom is far better than anything we can possess. Wisdom comes only to those who seek it through our relationship with God through Jesus Christ and diligent study of His Word.

We cannot allow the wisdom of the world to overshadow the wisdom of God. Neither can we allow the standards of the world to outshine the standards of God. There is only one standard we should live up to and that is God’s.

Wisdom cries out to all of us. So, let us allow God’s wisdom and standards to lead, guide, and direct us.

Pastor Kevin Lewis has been in the full-time ministry for over 25 years. After attending Rhema Bible Training Center, he joined Midwest Agape Chapel and was the associate pastor for 8 years. Leaving Midwest to take a senior pastor position, he and his family moved to Lakeside, Arizona to minister at The Living Church, where they remained for another 8 years. In 2004, the Lewis family felt called to move into another area of ministry and returned to Tulsa. In September of 2006, Pastor Kevin took the leadership reins at Midwest Agape Chapel which is now known as One Church in the Glenpool community. He enjoys building, equipping, empowering the people to walk victoriously in the promises of God. A passion of his heart is to reach the community and beyond with the "truth" of the gospel and the love of Christ. Pastor Kevin is involved with ministers in the community, as well as Rhema Alumni, Victory Fellowship of Ministries, and Bishop Gary McIntosh of Transformation Church.
