Chapter 21
By Elaine Taylor

July 21, 2015

Verses 1-3 and 30-31 really stood out to me personally. In this day and time in which we're living, there is so much uncertainty in the world and in our everyday lives. However, God reminds us that we can always place our trust in Him and He will never leave us, forsake us or fail us.

He reminds me that obedience to His word is better than any sacrifice I could ever even think of making to Him. We all want to be favored by man and by God and it is possible to have that by being obedient to His Word and walking in His commandments. He will cause the King's heart to be turned our direction! What a promise!

Also, note that victory rests with the Lord. There is no wisdom, no insight, and no plan that can succeed against the Lord. As the Scripture declares in Romans 8:31, "If God be for us, who can be against us." Amen.

A brief personal note also concerning marriage - It is so important to find the right person in the Lord for you. Don't be anxious if you're still single after that "certain age." Don't settle for less than God's best for your life. Be content to be the spouse of God and let Him mold you into the righteous person He desires and then that mate will come along. I was 56 when I married for the first time. I enjoyed my single years, with the Lord opening doors for me that I couldn't haven't gone through being married. In fact, I literally told Him that He would have to hit me over the head with a 2x4 to show me the right person if He wanted me to marry. Well, Jimmy came along, and bam! I knew he was the one, although I had to convince him a little bit. We've been married almost 10 years, and I know that God had the right time and place for both of us to have been molded by God and to come together to work for His kingdom. Thank You, Lord, for Your ever present hand on my life.
